

How to Drive

A driver's license comes with an enormous amount of responsibility. You can prepare your students for the road ahead with the thirteenth edition of AAA's How to Drive. Emphasizing defensive driving and risk reduction, this manual benefits both new and experienced drivers.

How to Drive — Student Manual #3502

$14.95 each

Everything your students need to know about driving in today's mobile society can be found in this manual. Based on the principles of managing visibility, time and space, the content reflects the latest concepts in driver safety and is the definitive handbook for new drivers.

How to Drive — Instructor's Edition #3505

$64.30 per binder

Designed to provide the tools instructors need, this binder includes lesson plans, suggested discussion topics, interactive classroom presentations, answers to all chapter summary questions, recommendations for supplemental videos, and reproducible fact sheets and worksheets. Individual state crash data also is included on the CD, making it easy for instructors to customize their presentations using local information.

How to Drive – Test Booklet #3503

$76.24 per pack of 25 booklets

These reusable booklets make it easy for instructors to test each student's knowledge with multiple-choice questions for 16 chapters and a final exam.

How to Drive — Test Answer Sheets/Key #3504

Available at no charge

To obtain this product at no charge, go to AAA.biz/trafficsafety, click on the How to Drive product link and download the printable PDFs.

David Ragan is 100 percent committed to safe teen driving. Each year, David meets with hundreds of new teen drivers to discuss real-world risks, crash prevention, and driving responsibility. AAA is proud to have David as part of its team working to develop safe teen drivers.

"As driver of the No. 6 AAA Ford Fusion, I know the importance of quality driver training. AAA wants to make sure teen drivers and their vehicles are road ready."

